Any disclosure will be limited to what is necessary for the relevant purpose.

7. International Data Transfers

Your personal information may be transferred to, processed, or stored in jurisdictions outside your country of residence.

Where cross-border transfers occur, Dominion Markets will take reasonable steps to ensure that appropriate safeguards are implemented to protect personal information and maintain confidentiality.

8. Data Security

Dominion Markets maintains appropriate technical, administrative, and organizational measures designed to protect personal information against unauthorized access, misuse, alteration, disclosure, loss, or destruction.

Security measures may include:

- Encryption technologies;

- Access controls and user authentication;
- Secure data storage environments;
- Ongoing monitoring and security reviews;
- Staff confidentiality obligations and training.

While we take reasonable measures to protect information, no method of transmission or storage can be guaranteed to be completely secure.

9. Data Retention

We retain personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfil legitimate business purposes, contractual obligations, legal obligations, regulatory requirements, AML/CFT obligations, dispute resolution, fraud prevention, and enforcement of rights.

Where required under applicable AML/CFT laws, regulatory obligations, or internal record-keeping requirements, customer records may be retained for a minimum period of ten (10) years following the termination of the business relationship or completion of a transaction, or for such longer period as may be required by law, regulation, regulatory instruction, legal proceedings, or internal policy.

Information that is no longer required will be securely deleted, destroyed, or anonymised where legally and operationally permissible.

10. Your Rights

Subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, you may have the right to:

- Access your personal information;
- Request correction of inaccurate information;
- Request updating of incomplete information;
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent;
- Object to certain processing activities;
- Request restriction of processing in certain circumstances;
- Request deletion of personal information where legally permissible;
- Opt out of direct marketing communications, and
- Lodge a complaint with the relevant data protection authority where applicable.

Certain requests may be limited where retention or processing is required by law or regulatory obligations.

11. Account Deletion Requests

Clients may request closure of their account and deletion of personal information by contacting our support team.

Upon receiving a valid request, Dominion Markets will review the request and take appropriate action in accordance with applicable laws and regulatory requirements.

Please note that personal information may continue to be retained where necessary for:

- AML/CFT compliance;
- Regulatory record-keeping requirements;
- Fraud prevention and investigations;
- Legal proceedings and dispute resolution;
- Enforcement of contractual rights and obligations.

Where deletion is not legally possible, information will be retained only for the required period and protected in accordance with this Privacy Policy.
